#	AGENDA & DISCUSSIONS	DECISIONS
1	Update on Escrow Account for the month of August 2026 – EMD, DoPS The Commission was apprised on the status of the Escrow Account. Against the closing balance of Nu. 21,096,381.15 at the end of July 2026, the closing balance as of August stood at Nu. 22,035,872.15. Details are provided in Annexure 1. The Commission enquired on the cheque of Nu. 200,000 issued to the OAG (in connection with the Phajo Nidup case), which had remained unencashed for approximately two years. EMD apprised that the balance of Nu. 11,469.175.00 under Bail and Bond in the Escrow account includes this amount of unencashed cheque. The Commission expressed concern over the prolonged non-action of the matter and its possible implications for institutional accountability and credibility. Commission also enquired whether any other outstanding cheques remained with the OAG.	The Commission noted the update. Further, the Commission directed EMD, DoPS to immediately liaise with OAG through the ACC focal point, verify the status of the cheque, and close the matter without further delay.
2	Present the draft outline/structure of Annual Report 2025-2026 – PPD The Commission directed that the overall structure and layout be distinct from previous Annual Reports to reflect the transition to the new Commission. The Commission advised that the Report place greater emphasis on substantive outcomes and impact, including changes resulting from ACC studies, and recommendations. Significant and first-time engagements, such as participation in the Annual Education Conference, should be highlighted, including instances of proactive engagement with the ACC by agencies. The Report should also adequately reflect the contributions of the stakeholders, as well as initiatives	The Commission directed PPD to submit each section upon completion for review and further direction.

	such as Integrity Clubs, to reinforce the principle of collective responsibility in combating corruption. The Commission further directed that the Report be concise and reader-friendly.
3	Apprise the proposed MOU with the ACC of Maldives – PPD It was apprised that the draft MoU had been reviewed and agreed at the working level by both parties and further reviewed by the Legal Division prior to submission to the Commission. The Commission reviewed the draft and discussed that revised version be shared with the ACC of Maldives for concurrence, following which the necessary legal review and political clearance be obtained.	The Commission endorsed the proposed MoU, and directed PPD to complete required review and clearance processes.
