VENUE:	Google Meet

#	AGENDA	DECISIONS
1	Review the draft Terms of Reference for hiring consultancy services to Review & Evaluate the Social Accountability Program – RD, DoPE	The Commission endorsed the proposed Terms of Reference with comments to include a scope to assess the role of IT and social media in promoting social accountability mechanism, in particular citizen engagement. In view of the current situation, in particular community transmission of COVID-19 in Thimphu and Paro, the Research Division and DoPE were directed to revisit the plan of action for the study. It was noted that the study would entail field visits to collect data from some Dzongkhags & Gewogs.
2	Review the proposal to establish institutional linkage with International Anti-Corruption Academy of Austria – PPS	The Commission approved the proposal to sign Memorandum of Understanding with International Anti-Corruption Academy of Austria to ensure sustainable collaboration with the Academy. Such collaboration will be useful even after withdrawal of Austrian Development Agency's (ADA) support from the country. PPS was directed to initiate dialogue with the IACA and seek necessary concurrence from the MoFA and Cabinet Secretariat.
3	Review the proposed way forward to join the International Partnership Against Corruption in Sports (IPACS) – PPS & LD	The Commission decided to recommend the Bhutan Olympics Committee (BOC) to join the Partnership appreciating the objective of the multi-stakeholder initiative i.e to strengthen and support corruption prevention in sports. BOC joining the Partnership would provide greater edge in mainstreaming anti-corruption and integrity agenda in sports. Commissioner Jamtsho to meet the Secretary General of BOC to share the invitation from the IPACS.
4	Review reporting period of the ACC's Annual Report – PPS	Directed PPS to comprehensively review various options of presenting the ACC's Annual Reports, including preparing the report based on the Commission's Term. Accordingly, the PPS to present the analysis to the Commission for review and consideration.
