#	AGENDA	DECISIONS
1	Update on integration of moral values into ECCD programme – ED, DoPE	The Commission commended the progress made thus far in integrating moral values into school and tertiary education curricula in general, and in particular into the ECCD programme, which will be impactful in building a strong value-laden society against corruption. Under the aegis of the Youth Integrity Programme (YIP), integration of moral values into ECCD programme is one of the interventions. The integrity values viz. Responsibility, Fairness and Honesty will be embedded under the 6th domain, titled 'Spiritual, moral & cultural', of the Early Learning and Development Standards with 17 behavioral indicators and 58 activities. Likewise, the Commission also discussed on other programs under the YIP such as Integrity Clubs and integration of moral values into tertiary education curriculum. Recalling such former initiative in the Non-Formal Education curriculum, the Commission directed the ED to find out its status. In general, the Commission highlighted the need to establish identity or branding of these initiatives by packaging well for advocacy and communication to create demand from the stakeholders. Further, the Commission also directed to explore certification of the officials involved in relevant professional competences to ensure credibility of the above programs and at the same time promote professional growth.
2	Proposal to proactively enhance media coverage on anti-corruption programs – PPS	The Commission endorsed the proposal to allow Information & Media Officer (IMO) to attend various programs coordinated by the Departments/Divisions/Services and accordingly come up with media stories/coverage. It was noted that the stories related to the investigation gets media attention without having to provide much effort whereas the visibility related to prevention, education and other initiatives of the ACC are not encouraging. Hence, the IMO to attend the programs, irrespective of venue, that are either almost into advanced stage or areas/programs identified by the Commission for mass advocacy and communication. To start with, the Commission directed to work on the following: • Myths vs facts on the ACC. • Integrity Clubs in the Schools. • Integration of moral values in the TVET curricula. • Upcoming mandatory training vis-a-vis Competency Based Framework.
