VENUE:	Hearing Room

#	AGENDA	DECISIONS
1	Endorsement on App to manage Commission's decision – ICTS & PPS In accordance with the decisions of the 8th and 10th Commission Meeting held on 4 and 19 January 2021 respectively.	The Commission endorsed the App for implementation with few additional directives: • Assign one administrator role for each heads of Departments, Divisions and Services to upload respective management related decisions in the App. • Explore embedding links to the content under the respective dashboard icons to enable effective navigation. • Include 'pending' as additional parameters under Status column as well as auto color-coded notification to accord prominence for speedy action. • Include Commissioner In-charges, management (comprising of Commission, Heads of six Departments/Divisions/Services and PPS), and all ACC staff under the existing list for assignment/dissemination of decisions. • Include provisions to generate periodic report on the status of implementation and/or compliance to the decisions. • Include 'announcements' as an alternative while assigning the decisions to either officials concerned or all ACC staff for general information and/or adherence. • Develop clear parameters for categorizing the decisions to facilitate individuals concerned to organize the decisions effectively. To begin with, the Commission directed the PPS to upload all the decisions rendered by the Commission till date and accordingly ICTS to continuously enhance the App based on the user feedbacks.
2	Observers from Departments/Divisions/Services to Commission meeting on cases – PPS	The Commission decided to revise the Observers to the Commission Meeting on cases as follows: 1. Head, Legal Division; 2. Head, Follow-up & Documentation Division, DoPS. However, Director concerned to be kept informed with regular appraisal on the proceedings of the meeting; and

		3. Information & Media Officer, PPS. However, Director of DoPE's involvement to the meeting, as observers, was decided to be on need basis depending on the follow-up actions on systemic corrections. DoI was directed to indicate the necessity to involve DoPE and/or other relevant Departments/Divisions/Services based on the nature of follow-up actions. Alongside this, the Commission also decided on the members to be present for judgment appraisal to the Commission as follows: 1. Director, Department of Investigation; 2. Chief of case concerned, Department of Investigation; 3. Head, Legal Division; 4. Information & Media Officer, PPS; and 5. Head, Follow-up & Documentation Division, DoPS. Currently, judgments are reviewed and apprised to the Commission by the LD due to lack of manpower in the FDD. Until such a time that the FDD take over the responsibilities specific to judgment review and appraisal, LD shall continue to be the Member Secretary. However, FDD should gradually take over the responsibilities and act as the Member Secretary to judgment appraisal meetings and also maintain all proceedings related to the meetings.
3	Press package on the JPLP & SMCL cases – PPS	Pursuant to the Commission's directives to prepare media releases on SMCL & JPLP case, the PPS apprised that the draft has been shared with the Director, DoI for enrichment. To this, while finalization of media release related to JPLP case may take some time until issuance of Enforcement Order, the Commission directed to publish media release on SMCL case within this week in all print media including website and social media platforms of the ACC.
4	Others i) Status on the expenditure of the current Financial Year (2020 – 2021) budget	With less than a month left for closing of current Financial Year 2020 – 2021, the Commission directed to review the financial performance with specific direction to explore possibilities of conducting mandatory training in absolute containment mode of both the ACC and Hotel staff to ensure COVID-19 transmission risks are strictly controlled.
