#	AGENDA	DECISIONS
1	Hosting externship from JSW School of Law – PPS	The Commission endorsed the draft Externship Undertaking (attached) shared by the JSW School of Law for review, with following specific directives to the PPS: • Clarify whether the host agency is required to cover the travel expenses in the event the host agency sends the extern for field exercises such as for Court hearings, investigation, system studies, among others. • Remove the ACC's proposed insertion to undertake 'signing Oath of Allegiance' as the provision on complying with the ACC's Ethical Code of Conduct would suffice. • Remove the ACC's proposed insertion on termination of externship program in case the student fails to comply with the ACC's ethical standards. With regard to the externship program, the Commission decided as follows: • Instead of face-to-face interview, include requirement to furnish health certificate which will be useful in case the student is send for tour during course of externship. Host 'one' externship program to start with and gradually assess its effectiveness both from the perspective of the ACC as a host and student. In this regard, to go with the student who has provided the ACC as the first option for externship program.
2	Draft performance evaluation parameter to assess case complexity vis-à-vis turn-around time in the DoI – PPS	After reviewing the draft performance evaluation parameter to assess case complexity vis-à-vis turn-around time in the DoI (attached), the Commission directed the PPS to further consult with the DoI and explore possibilities of including parameters like conviction rate, prosecution referral rate, total amount involved, detention and outcome of case, among others.

3	Annual Report 2020 – 2021 presentation to the NA & NC – PPS	Against the draft PowerPoint slides prepared for the presentation to the Good Governance Committees of the National Assembly and National Council, the Commission directed the following: • Bring more clarity on why the data related to complaints against Gewogs cannot be directly compared with the NIA scores. • Emphasize 'TAT' in the adjudication of corruption cases as one of the fundamental reasons for having specialized corruption Benches. • Re-arrange the sequence of slides under Section 4 to accord more supporting argument on the operational independence. Further, rephrase the word 'operational independence' to give different perspective on organizational rethinking.
