TIME:	2:00 PM
VENUE:	Virtual (http://meet.google.com/joe-fqfh-xaw)

#	AGENDA	DECISIONS & RESPONSIBLE
1.	Present Roadmap on IVS - FDD, DoPS	The work on IVS started in early 2019 and since then, the final system has also been presented to the Commission on 28 December 2021. Moving ahead, with the expected launch of system by end of February 2022, the Department has plan to conduct advocacy program and initiate discussion with RCSC, DHI and private agencies on the implementation of IVS as well as possibilities of linking with their prevailing systems. Toward this, the Commission noted that in order for the IVS to achieve its objective of promoting high standard of ethics and integrity in the public services, the current guideline may not suffice. Thus, the commission provided the direction as follows: • LD in consultation with FDD to draft the Rules and Regulation on IVS by end of February 2022 and to explore how to include provision of IVS in the on-going ACAB amendment. • The initial plan to launch the system by end of February to be contingent on the development of the Rules and Regulation. • The report format along with color coding to be discussed during the formulation of the Rules and Regulation.
2.	Present list of tasks for the ACC Offices in Phuentsholing, Bumthang and Trashigang- ASCT	As directed during the 63rd Commission meeting, the departments/divisions/services presented the tasks that can be assigned to the ACC offices based on jurisdiction. The Commission noted that while the list of tasks can be kept ready, each regional offices should be able to proactively propose their own scope of work.

3.	Present the resolution of the sixth session of the third Parliament- PPS	The PPS presented the three resolutions received from the sixth session of the third Parliament as follows: 1. The Royal Court of Justice to create a designated and separate Bench for Corruption cases to expedite resolution of corruption cases delayed in prosecution; 2. A reminder to the OAG and the ACC to expedite restitution of the outstanding amount of Nu. 412.374 million and to specify amounts restituted between now and the next reporting year; and 3. Royal Civil Service Commission to provide ACC with the required manpower till such time ACC is provided complete operational independence. Towards this, except for providing update on restitution amount, the Commission also noted that the other two resolutions are addressed towards other agencies.
