	thereagainst. LD apprised that the head of Legal Service of the ministry informed of their plan to take actions against those involved in the misconduct and shared their concern that it may appear to be biasness if they impose major administrative actions against those involved in allegation 1-5 and leave those involved in allegation 6 - 7 without taking any action until the Commission make final conclusion. They sought Commission advice on whether it would be appropriate to suspend those involved in allegation 6 - 7 as an interim measure to prevent continuation of malfeasance. LD apprised the Commission of advising the ministry to go ahead with taking administrative action and that it would be appropriate to suspend those involved in allegation 6 -7 until the Commission conclude investigation without imposing major disciplinary action which may have adverse impact on the case.	LD to inform ministry that administrative action does not limit to taking action on the individual but also includes correction or improvement of systems and administrative procedures including the need assessment of the properties misused.
	iii. Another case where in an individuals' personal account, a sum of money was deposited as donation. However, on consulting the concerned agency, no such donation was received nor the person who deposited the money was registered as donor. Since the person deposited money from Malaysia, the Department proposed to seek Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission's (MACC) help in identifying and locating the person for further inquiries.	iii. Before contacting MACC, directed to first see if the person ever travelled to Bhutan through immigration or other means.
