#	AGENDA	DISCUSSION
1.	Regular update on HR – HRS PPD apprised the Commission on the decisions of the 80th HRC meeting on behalf of the Asst. HRO as follows: ● Budget of Nu. Nu. 7,214,950 has been proposed for the mandatory training tentatively scheduled for 37 days to the RCSC. ● Received three recommendations for interns from the JSW Law School. ● Received invitation for the 24th Corrupt Practices Investigation Course (CPIC) at CPIB, Singapore for two officers tentatively from 31 January to mid-July 2023.	The Commission noted the decisions of the HRC meetings. Some of the specific directions of the Commission are as follows: ● Regarding the Mandatory training the Commission directed to see the schedule of the Foundational In-service Training for the BCSE selected candidates so that the HRS can accordingly plan the schedule for the Mandatory training. In addition, explore the options to conduct the training in Phuentsholing building to include the observation of live interrogation and interview into the Mandatory training. Moreover, directed HRS to explore training for the mid-level and senior-level staff as per the Competency Based Framework. ● The Commission noted that the internship is a good opportunity for the student to explore their interest to join the ACC after graduation. Thus, directed to ensure confidentiality of information as well as engagement of the interns. ● In terms of the nomination for the CPIC course, given the relevance the Commission directed to open the opportunity for the staff of the DoI and cautioned to ensure that the nomination process is transparent and consultative. In addition, directed to keep Regional Heads in the loop during the nomination process. As for the budget, to be met from the JSP project fund. ● The Chairperson informed on the IAACA's invitation to attend a training programme on 22 and 23 February 2023

2.	Regular update on IVS- DoPS The Department updated the Commission that they are preparing for the launch of the Integrity Vetting System (IVS) on 30 December 2022. In addition, they will be developing an infographic on the IVS.	To this, the Commission directed the following: ● Ready the Rules and Manual and accordingly schedule the presentation to the Commission in the coming week. ● To rename the Manual as SOP (Standard Operating Procedure). ● Do the pilot testing of the system before the launch. ● Department to involve LD in standardizing the Rule and submit to PPD for the overall formatting. ● Include background of the Integrity Vetting along with the statistics in the Press Release. Similarly, the Press Release can highlight Why, What and Who aspects of the IVS.
3.	Update on AD Compliance status - ADMD, DoPE The Division presented its sixth update on the Asset Declaration compliance status. As for the payment, the Division apprised that the deadline has been extended until 30 January 2023 but considering the impact on the sustenance of the livelihood of individuals, it is subject to extension.	Based on the plausibility of justification and recommendation of the Division, the Commission decided to waive off or impose. *(The decision against individuals as endorsed by the Commission is attached as Annex I) The Commission directed to consult the individual enquiring the tentative date by which they can pay the penalty while also ensuring that the deadline is not unduly extended. In addition, directed the Division to be meticulous in sending messages for non-compliance and aim for 100% compliance rate for the upcoming reporting year.
4.	Discuss on security related process and transfer of detainee - Major, DoI & LD Following the meeting with the Deputy Chief of Police (DCoP) on Tuesday (20 December 2022), the Director of DoI and Sr. Legal Officer shared the concerns shared by the DCoP regarding the transfer of the detainee. Given that the transfer of detainee concerning multiple jurisdictions under the current modality is carried without cognizance of the Headquarter (HQ), the DCoP suggested if such arrangement could be made only after informing the	The Commission noted the suggestions of the DCoP and decided to route the case of transfer of detainees through the DCoP which involves multiple jurisdictions. However, the transfer of detainees from the local police station to the ACC's premises, shall be based on the current practices. Besides, the Commission informed that the Director and any other officers shall not be called upon to discuss such matters as they are unnecessarily exposed. Henceforth, the Commission will deal appropriately on such cases.

	HQ (in this case DCoP) so as to ensure a clear line of accountability should any mishap happen. In addition, to address the operational hustle for the Security Officer, the Director raised the need to draw clarity regarding deputation of Major. As of now, Superintendent of Police of Police Stations seems to be oblivious of the deputation and this has inhibited Major from functioning doubtlessly on behalf of the Commission. To this, it would be better if the Royal Bhutan Police could clearly communicate on the same. There is a need for clear Terms of Reference for the Security Officer.	The Commission also directed the Security Officer to find out the status of budget allocation for construction of a separate detention center since the discussion was held in the Parliament and the budget has been approved. The Commission also acknowledged the requirement of requisite facilities and capacity to ensure safe security management in the long run.
5.	Present the Draft Report for submission to OGZ – PPD	The Commission directed PPD to reduce the report to 3 pages and resubmit to the Commission for review.
