TIME:	02:00 PM
VENUE:	Druk Dradhir Khang

#	AGENDA & DISCUSSIONS	DECISIONS
1	Apprise on civic & voter education in collaboration with the ECB – ED, DoPE The Commission reviewed the draft presentation slides to educate the constituents on corruption, anti-corruption programs and their rights and responsibilities in preparation for the National Assembly Elections 2023.	The Commission endorsed the presentation slides with advice to incorporate/revise data from sources like varieties of democracy (V-Dem), provisional NCBR 2023, among others. Further, directed to refer to the milestones of Strategic Roadmap and Mission 114 wherever appropriate. Directed the following officials to join three teams of the ECB for the program from 17 – 29 July 2023: 1. Tenzin Phuntsho, Chief, ED (western cluster); 2. Thinley Norbu, Regional Director, Bumthang RO (central cluster); and 3. Tshering Zangmo, AIPO, ED (eastern & south-western clusters).
2	Apprise on realignment of POE switch for CCTV camera – Pling RO The Regional Director apprised the Commission that the CCTV in Phuntsholing is currently not functional as two of the POE switches for CCTV has been damaged due to humidity in the duct of the building. The RO proposed to replace the damaged switches and install in the new location. On another note, the RD apprised that the RO, in its staff meeting, discussed on the need to uphold decorum by maintaining proper dress code during the office hours.	As proposed, the Commission directed the RD to procure, rewire and install the POE switches in a different location and maintain administrative note/record on the same. On the national dress code decorum, the Commission fully respects and supports the need for a proper Protocol since the Phuentsholing Office building houses both office and residence under one roof and particularly for the Regional Team the lines between the two needs to be distinct for a healthy and conducive atmosphere of 'work' and 'home'. The Commission therefore directed the RD, in full consultation with the Team, to draw up such a protocol, which would thereafter be communicated for support and compliance by all.

3	Debrief on Masters program and the way forward - Karma T Wangchuk, PD As a follow-up of his Masters program, Karma apprised some of the possible contributions that he can make to the organization which included research into i) media coverage and its impact on corruption reduction; ii) the financial/performance implication of corruption crackdowns; and iii) gender and the vulnerability towards corruption.	The Commission, in principle, approved the proposals and directed Karma to proactively take initiatives. Specifically, on a priority bases, Karma was directed to: i. lead the proposed research on 'financial/performance implications of corruption crackdown' assessing impacts of anti-corruption efforts by focusing either on areas of investigations or preventive interventions introduced, such as OIP. ii. Assess and support data management of integrity vetting system using strata to strengthen integrity and reliability of the data/records. iii. Support PPD in creatively interpreting and analyzing data/information of the Annual Report 2022-2023.
4	Apprise stock taking of public services & recommendations to the Cabinet Secretariat – EAD & PPD This was in response to Cabinet Secretariat's request to submit lists of potential public services that could be considered for privatization vide letter no. S-08/C4CS/21.489 dated 20 June 2023.	The Commission directed PPD to write letter to the Cabinet Secretariat informing that the ACC do not have any specific service that can be fully privatized, while also informing that the ACC will continue to engage CSOs, media and private companies, wherever possible, on areas such as on education, advocacy and researches. Further, to share the NIA 2022 report, with detailed information on vulnerable services and proposal to make a detailed presentation at their convenient time.
5	Media engagement and management– DoPE, DoPS, DoI, LD & PPD The meeting discussed the need to enhance engagement of media by strategically promoting their proactive role on the ACC's preventive programs, besides investigative function. Discussing that the status quo will negatively affect the credibility of the organization, it was highlighted that the ACC need to strive for a sustainable engagement with media.	The Commission decided to strategize the engagement of media by consistently sharing media release on ACC's programs/ interventions/publications. To this, EAD was directed to disseminate series of media releases on NIA 2022. Thereafter, Annual Report, Integrity Vetting System, Model Public Service Code of Conduct, and other programs to be disseminated for sustained engagement. Further, LD and PPD were directed to initiate publication of joint media release on cases upon its registration in the court and after receipt of judgment from court, adhering to the Media Engagement Framework of ACC and OAG. These shall ensure balanced engagement of media on preventive and investigative functions. Further, the meeting discussed that the ACC, in the near future, need to revisit the current Media Engagement Framework of ACC and OAG to promote sustained and effective information sharing through media.

6	Any other: - Presentation of complaints related data for the Annual Report 2022-2023 - Reminder to comply on TAT for drafting and sharing of minutes of the meetings.	As proposed, the Commission directed DoPS to prepare and present complaints data for the Annual Report where required in two different periods, to ensure accurate reporting of information based on the reorganization effected by the Civil Service Reform Act of Bhutan 2022. The Commission directed all, including the PPD, to ensure compliance to the TAT of sharing minutes of the general meetings in four working days.
