#	AGENDA	DISCUSSION
1	Regular HR update – HRS The HRO apprised the Commission on the 128th HRC meeting as follows: - Update on the Study Leave for Jangchu Tshomo & Kezang Dorji. - Mapping of position title for DARe officials as Technical Surveillance & Intelligence Officer as per BCSR 2023. - Appointment of Chhimmi Wangmo, Sr. IPO as the Officiating Head of Branch I, DoI until further notice. - Regularization of Wangda Dorji. - Recruitment of three Legal Officers of regular contract. - Invitation to attend 8th Symposium hosted by ICAC Hong Kong and IAACA from 22-24 May 2024. - Request for job rotation by Kinley Wangmo.	The Commission noted the decisions of the HRC and emphasized the following: - Legal Officers must be prepared to serve anywhere including in the Regional Offices posted by the Commission. - HRC should strategize in prioritizing targeted specialized training programs over the 8th symposium given the limited budget. - HRC should view such job rotation proposals as a strategic organizational development initiative, presenting a valuable opportunity to foster synergy between the Regional Offices and Head Office. More than anything else, her posting to the Regional Offices would facilitate in capacity enhancement of Regional Offices in realizing the overall 13th FYP targets. Hence, while Kinley Wangmo will work like any other member under the supervision of the Regional Director, she as the head of PPD shall also closely work with all three Regional Offices on performance metrics, organizational development, and related matters, with regular reporting to the Commission. Such approach should serve as a model for other senior officials at the Head Office, setting a positive trend in job rotations. Nonetheless, to ensure clarity, a specific ToR to be developed.
2	Update on non-declaration cases for the declaration year 2021 – ADMD In keeping with the decision of the 153rd Commission meeting, the ADMD	The Commission noted the updates and decided to close the case in accordance to the last decision of the Commission. Further, since Mr. Dorji submitted his written justification, it was also decided not to include in the IVS.

	apprised that the fines against Mr. Chencho Norbu have been paid by the BDBL whereas Mr. Dorji Penjore, earlier reported as untraceable, was successfully located by the DARe. While reporting to the ACC, Mr. Dorji submitted that due to unforeseen circumstances, including loss of his job and ongoing family distress, he was unable to comply to the imposed fines. Hence, he requested for either a waiver or the consideration of an instalment-based payment plan. The plea was substantiated by his parents. Taking into account the completed declaration for the year and acknowledging Mr. Dorji's past compliance on AD, the ADMD recommended the closure of the case against Mr. Dorji.	Besides this, the Chairperson directed the ADMD to already start planning for communication and advocacy strategies to enhance the decreasing compliance rate. Also, advised to innovate video messages and explore platforms such as BBS 3.
3	Update on the expression of interest from ICAC Hong Kong to conduct training for the ACC officials in Bhutan PPD apprised the Commission that the MoFAET has advised not to further pursue the exchange program.	The Commission noted the advice and directed to communicate to the counterpart regarding the inability to proceed with the program at present, attributing it to the ongoing organizational restructuring and development efforts.
4	Any others: - Update on preparation for the Foundation Day – PPD The PPD along with the SS Head updated the Commission on the preparation for the Foundation Day.	Commission noted the update with some specific directives to: - Ensure that all Regional Officials imprint whenever they are at the Head Office. - Explain on the cost implications associated with the overall commemoration. - Inform the Regional Offices about the option of utilizing working parents' corner as a workstation or overnight stay during visit to the Head Office. - Conclude the program by 4 PM. - Ensure that all details are meticulously planned and executed. - Extend invitations to the ACC officials on deputation or focal persons from MoF, GovTech, among others as deemed appropriate.
	- Commission meeting on the Complaints – DoPS Director, DoPS proposed to hold Commission meeting on complaints twice a week, specifically on Monday and	Commission approved the proposal and advised to allocate about an hour and a half for each meeting on the specified days.

	Thursday afternoons. This proposal aims to reduce TAT for complaints management from six to three working days.
