#	AGENDA & DISCUSSION	DECISION
1	Regular HR update- HRS HRS apprised the Commission on the 145th meeting as follows: - list of standby officials from the Head Office for deployment to Regional Offices in case of staffing gap. - approval on the transfer of identified officials to Regional Offices with effect from 1 July 2024. - appointment of Acting Director, Kin Dorji as the Chairperson of the HRC with immediate effect. - update on the progress of the ongoing mandatory training at PDC, Tsirang.	Noted
2	Proposal to strengthen the Prevention Division's functions – DoPE PD, DoPE presented the challenges faced in realizing the targets ascertained in the APT with the limited staff strength and capacity vis-à-vis the need to focus on multiple sectors and tools. To this, the quantitative analysis conducted on the HR and APT data, focusing on the metrics including the active workforce rate, average age, average years in ACC, percentage of regular employee, and APT weightage per capita of active workforce by department/division (2023-2024) reveal that the PD was inadequately resourced both in terms of experience and expertise. Additionally, analysis on the relevancy and practicality of tools in different sectors indicate the need to strategize in ensuring impact of the tools implemented. In view of the above, PD proposed for "Collaborative Whole-of-System" approach, targeting specific sectors for impactful	Underscoring the significance of having balanced approach of both tool-based and organizational culture-based strategies for enhanced effectiveness of anti-corruption measures, the Commission commended the proposal with following specific directives: • review the pending activities of the Division. • assess the application and adaptation of the current tools. • develop a concise proposal highlighting the integration of mandatory indicators within the public agency processes. • present a proposal to implementation. The proposal emphasized on proactive approach by leveraging research findings and investigative case studies (offshoot) to identify risks and vulnerabilities, enabling customized policy and regulations. In addition, PD also apprised the need to revisit the ACC's contact points in other agencies to ensure effectiveness and continuity of interventions.	engage domain experts who can provide insights within particular areas of study. • discuss with ADMD to reconsider the contact focal points.

3	Indicative capital budget outlay for the ACC in the 13th FYP – PPD PPD apprised the Commission on the ongoing discussion related to the capital budget outlay for the ACC in the 13th FYP. In response to the letter received from the Cabinet Secretariat vide letter no. S/20/2024/2297 dated 21 May 2024 informing on the capital budget outlay of Nu.57.760 million for the ACC against the initial proposal of Nu.577.515 million, including Nu.250.000 million for construction and Nu.105.600 million for HRD, the Management Meeting held on 28 May 2024 decided to prioritize the capital budget outlay to Nu.93.825 million and re-adjust the performance targets and activities as follows for onward submission: - TI-CPI score to 70 from 73; NIA score to 8.5 from 9; - reduce administrative complaints to less than 25% from 5%; - improve proactive research and intelligence-based investigation ratio to 60% from 90%; - reduce wastage of public funds to fraud and corruption to less than 1.39% from Zero; - identify and mitigate corruption risks in 5 vulnerable sectors from 10; - reduced adverse opinion of children/youth on moral and ethical values to less than 39% from 5%; - reduce citizen's experience in offering bribes to less than or equal to 1% from Zero; - improve compliance to Open Organization Domain under the BCAS to 77% from 75.96%; - reduce complaints qualified for investigation against LEAs & Regulatory Agencies to less than 15 from Zero; - explore combining the system studies and observational studies including collaboration with the DoI during investigation for targeted	Noted with the directives to keep the alternate option ready in case if directed to reduce the outlay.

	intervention; - explore avenues to minimize the cost of NIA including adoption of cost sharing modality for NCBS with the BTI. However, PPD received further communication from the Cabinet Secretariat to prepare a presentation on the ACC's 13th FYP with the initial proposed outlay to the Hon'ble Prime Minister.
