#	AGENDA & DISCUSSION	DECISION
1	Draft concept note on the session related to public institions – PPD PPD presented on the draft concept note for conducting a session titled "constitutional role, legal status, and functional boundaries of public institutions in Bhutan" aimed at fostering common understanding on the constitutional and legal provisions governing public institutions and their classifications. A two-hour debate-style panel discussion is proposed to explore key areas including constitutional and legal provisions defining public institutions; mandates and functional boundaries of public institutions, including those with cultural, spiritual, or societal contributions; and ambiguities and their implications on the overall accountability and rule of law. The session proposes to engage diverse officials comprising of the Royal Court of Justice, National Council, Office of the Attorney General, JSW School of Law, Corporate Regulatory Authority, and Private Law Firm.	Endorsed and directed to include a representative from the CSOA and Religious Organizations to ensure inclusivity.
2	Update on the training on Investigation Management by AFP – PPD PPD apprised the Commission that the AFP proposed to conduct the training on investigation management in the last week of February 2025 and defer the training for intelligence and surveillance to the third quarter of the 2025 due to non-availalibility of resource person. Given that the training is on a cost sharing arrangement, the PPD proposed to proceed with the proposed schedule. While the suggested date coincides with the already planned training on cryptocurrency by GCIT, PPD apprised that the GCIT has offered flexibility to reschedule it to the first week of March 2025.	Endorsed.
