VENUE:	Chairperson's Chamber

#	AGENDA	DECISIONS
1	Apprise on the draft Commission's ToR- Task Force As directed by the 32nd Commission meeting held on 5 March 2019, the draft ToR prepared by the Task Force was presented to the Commission. The ToR is expected to be a guide for the Commission, in particular the new members in effectively discharging its mandate. Besides, the ToR is also expected to assist as aide-memoire to the ACAB 2011.	Noting the challenges in defining the scope of the ToR, the Commission endorsed the draft ToR to start with. Also, noted the need to constantly review and implement changes in the draft ToR, as and when required.
2	Discuss possible areas of cooperation with ICAC Hong Kong for upcoming bilateral meeting- PPS Besides attending the 7th ICAC Symposium which will be held from 22-25 May 2019 at Hong Kong, the objective of Chairperson and Commissioner's visit is to explore possible collaboration with the ICAC Hong Kong. To this, the PPS apprised on the status of arranging bilateral meeting with the Commissioner of ICAC. In order to facilitate focused discussion, the PPS presented some of the possible areas for collaboration.	The Commission noted following areas to be discussed during the bilateral meeting with the Commissioner of ICAC: • Specialized investigative capacity building of the ACC professionals in handling emerging corruption issues including asset recovery, complex financial investigation, intelligence gathering, computer/digital forensics, MLA, etc. The training can be hosted either in Bhutan or Hong Kong, depending on the availability of resources (expert's time and budget). In order to better understand the competency gaps, a field visit by a team from ICAC can be explored. • Development of leadership/managerial skills especially for law enforcement agencies through courses such as Chief Investigator's Command Course (CICC). Till date, five ACC officials attended the above course from 2009 to 2015. • Capacity development of prevention and education professionals of the ACC in conducting proactive & reactive systemic studies; engaging CSO, media and private sector for anti-corruption programs; developing innovative strategies/approaches for awareness programs; integrity vetting system; among others. • Recruitment and retention strategies of ICAC. • Sharing of anti-corruption related publications, in particular from the online resources of CACS. • Conducting joint anti-corruption programs/seminars/conferences where Bhutan can be the local host.

3	Apprise on the recommendations of Director's Forum – PPS Since the formal institution of Director's Forum in August 2018, two meetings were coordinated. The second Director's Forum held on 29 April 2019, discussed on 1) sharing of information and resources among Department/Divisions/Services; 2) transition support to the Commission; 3) organizational performance assessment; and 4) follow-up, review and appraisal of investigation related ATRs. Accordingly, the Commission was apprised on the discussions of the Forum.	Noted
4	Sign the MoU with the NACC – PPS The MoU with the NACC of Thailand was renewed for the second time since the first signing in May 2010.	The Chairperson signed the MoU in the presence of two Commissioners.
5	Quarterly Staff Meeting 2019 The PPS apologized for not being able to schedule the meeting as decided in the first Quarterly Staff Meeting for the year 2018 which was held on 20 July 2018. To this, the Commission reiterated the need to stick with the already agreed schedule. Further, it was directed that even if it is for few hours, the meeting should be coordinated.	Noting the delay, the Commission directed to coordinate the fourth Quarterly Staff Meeting in first or second week of May and advised to explore organizing in the ACC conference hall.
